

Call for Papers for the 2nd Workshop in Applied Microeconomics 2022-23

The Association for Mentoring and Inclusion in Economics (AMIE) is now accepting submissions for the 2nd Workshop in Applied Microeconomics, to be held remotely on Zoom on October 21, 2022. We welcome papers that investigate topics in empirical microeconomics broadly defined.

The AMIE workshop provides a platform for Ph.D. students in economics/public policy/applied economics/agricultural economics to present their work and receive feedback on current research projects. AMIE welcomes students currently enrolled in a PhD program in any country worldwide and from all backgrounds, especially those from underrepresented minorities (URM), LGBTQIA++ community, first-generation college, and international students.

Who can apply?

Ph.D. students in economics/public policy/applied economics/agricultural economics, who are actively working on their dissertation and have a complete research paper that would benefit from feedback from an economist in their field. Students on the job market in 2022-23 are also encouraged to apply.

How to apply?

Please send an email to research@econmentoring.org with:

- your research paper (complete draft),
- your most recent CV, and
- a cover letter (here you may provide information about any experiences you have had as a member of a group you identify with, and/or how you think you would benefit from the AMIE Workshop). Please also include the name and contact information of your primary PhD advisor.

The deadline for submissions is August 3, 2022.

Scientific Committee

Rossella Calvi (Rice University), Gaurav Chiplunkar (University of Virginia), Teevrat Garg (University of California-San Diego), Laura Gee (Tufts University), Hani Mansour (University of Colorado-Denver), Priya Mukherjee (University of Wisconsin-Madison), Erica Myers (University of Calgary), Yusuf Negggers (University of Michigan), Sebastian Tello-Trillo (University of Virginia)

AMIE Research Team (2022-2023)

Co-Directors: Rossella Calvi (Rice University), Hani Mansour (University of Colorado-Denver), Priya Mukherjee (University of Wisconsin-Madison)

CONTACT US:

Email: info@econmentoring.org

VISIT US:

www.econmentoring.org

CO-FOUNDERS:

Priya Mukherjee, Ph.D
Email: priya.mukherjee@econmentoring.org

Nishith Prakash, Ph.D
Email: nishith.prakash@econmentoring.org

Additional information about AMIE

AMIE was founded to identify and address group-based disparities faced by PhD students in the economics profession. AMIE welcomes students from all backgrounds, especially those from underrepresented minorities (URM), LGBTQIA++ community, first-generation college, and international students. The core functions of AMIE include mentoring, providing equal access to opportunities, inclusion and outreach, and organizing events to improve networking opportunities, professional development, etc.

AMIE strives to be diverse along all dimensions that may be important for effective mentoring and inclusion. AMIE is proud to be associated with dedicated board members who care deeply about inclusion and diversity. In addition to this board, AMIE also has a team of 19 professionals from academia, think-tanks, and the private sector that are involved in long-term strategic planning. AMIE ran a successful mentoring program for 32 mentees with the help of 25 mentors in 2021, as well as its 1st Workshop in Applied Microeconomics.

CONTACT US:

Email: info@econmentoring.org

VISIT US:

www.econmentoring.org

CO-FOUNDERS:

Priya Mukherjee, Ph.D
Email: priya.mukherjee@econmentoring.org

Nishith Prakash, Ph.D
Email: nishith.prakash@econmentoring.org